Chapter 137.

Resolve, in Favor of the State Board of Mothers' Aid.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the funds appropriated by the legislature for carrying on the work of the state board of mothers' aid are insufficient to continue the present number of active cases for the remaining months of the fiscal year to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine; and

Whereas, the state board of mothers' aid, in an endeavor to care for as many mothers with dependent children as the appropriation would permit, has carried an excess liability on the annual appropriation, which means that it will be necessary to suspend all active cases for a period of five weeks in order to live within the appropriation available; and

Whereas, the aforesaid facts seem to this legislature to constitute an emergency to protect the welfare of the recipients of mothers' aid; now therefore, be it

Mothers' aid, appropriation for. Resolved: That the governor and council are hereby authorized to provide such amounts of money as they may deem necessary to carry out the activities of the board of mothers' aid for the balance of the year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, from funds under the control of the governor and council now in their possession.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 10, 1929.

Chapter 138.

Resolve, for Pay and Expenses of Wardens of Sea and Shore Fisheries and the Purchase of Seed Lobsters.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the funds appropriated by the legislature for the pay and expenses of wardens of the sea and shore fisheries and the purchase of seed lobsters are so nearly exhausted that additional funds will be absolutely essential to continue the department of sea and shore fisheries in an efficient manner for the remaining months of the fiscal year to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, and
