Chapter 153.

Resolve, in Favor of Poultry Husbandry.

Poultry husbandry, appropriation for. Resolved: That there be and hereby is appropriated the sum of twenty thousand dollars for the year from July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty and five thousand dollars for the year from July first, nineteen hundred and thirty to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, for the erection and maintenance, including all expenses necessary and incidental to the operation thereof, of a poultry plant suitable for the study and observation of egg laying qualities and productivity of various flocks, types and breeds of poultry, provided that all birds entered in said contest shall be bred, raised and owned by the entrant and shall also be truly representative in color, size, shape and symmetry of the breed each represents. Such plant and equipment to be located upon land owned by the state of Maine in the town of Monmouth, known as Highmoor Farm. Said sum to be expended and said plant and equipment to be supervised by and under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture or his agent in charge of animal industry. The said commissioner or his agent shall have authority to sell and dispose of all eggs produced in the progress of any tests or trials carried on in connection therewith and all proceeds of such sales of eggs shall be paid by him to the treasurer of state and credited to the current appropriation for the purposes specified in this resolve. The commissioner of agriculture or his agent may employ a foreman, or superintendent in charge of said poultry plant and such assistants as may be necessary, provided, however, that such foreman, superintendent or assistants shall be persons acceptable to and approved by a majority of the executive committee of the Maine Poultry Breeders Association, an organization regularly incorporated under the laws of the state. Any balance of the sum above appropriated for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty, which may remain unexpended at the end of said period shall be available for expenditure during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty-one. Funds to come from Surplus Revenue Construction Fund.

Approved April 13, 1929.
