CHAP. 2

annual meeting of stockholders, as also at each special meeting of stockholders, a record showing a true and complete list of all stockholders, their residences, and the amount of stock held by each; and such record, or a duly proved copy thereof, shall be competent evidence in any court of this state to prove who are stockholders in such corporation and the amount of stock held by each stockholder. Such records and list of stockholders shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of persons interested, who may take copies and minutes therefrom of such parts as concern their interests, and have them produced in court on trial of an action in which they are interested. The above provisions as to list of stockholders shall not apply to any corporation doing business in this state and having a treasurer's office at some fixed place in the state where a stock-book is kept giving the names, residences, and amount of stock of each stockholder.'

Approved February 19, 1931.

Chapter 2.

AN ACT Relative to Wearing of State Highway Police Uniform.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 29, sec. 124; relating to wearing of state highway police uniform restricted. Section one hundred twenty-four of chapter twenty-nine of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'It shall be unlawful for any person to wear the prescribed uniform or badge of the state highway police or any distinctive part thereof except on order of the chief of said state highway police', so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 124. State highway police uniform and equipment, when worn; to hold no other office. Members of the state highway police shall be provided at the expense of the state with a distinctive uniform and badge, and with suitable equipment, including motorcycles for use when requisite to the performance of their official duties, all of which shall remain the property of the state. When on duty to enforce the laws of the road, and at such other times as the chief may require, state highway policemen shall be in uniform. They shall hold no other office during their term of service. It shall be unlawful for any person to wear the prescribed uniform or badge of the state highway police or any distinctive part thereof except on order of the chief of said state highway police.'

Approved February 19, 1931.
