Chapter 3.

AN ACT Relative to the Organization of Corporations Without Capital Stock.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 70, sec. 2; relating to notice of meeting; amended. Section two of chapter seventy of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

'If all the signers of the application to the justice of the peace shall in writing waive notice and fix a time and place of such meeting, no notice or publication shall be necessary. All prior organizations under this chapter at which all the signers of the application to the justice of the peace waived notice and fixed a time and place for meeting are hereby legalized,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 2. Waiver of notice of meeting. Such applicant may call it, by reading the warrant in the presence and hearing of each, or by leaving an attested copy thereof at his last and usual place of abode, at least fourteen days before the day of meeting, or by publishing an attested copy thereof in some newspaper printed in said county, for two weeks successively, the first publication to be at least fourteen days before the day of meeting. If all the signers of the application to the justice of the peace shall in writing waive notice and fix a time and place of such meeting, no notice or publication shall be necessary. All prior organizations under this chapter at which all the signers of the application to the justice of the peace waived notice and fixed a time and place for meeting are hereby legalized.'

Approved February 19, 1931.

Chapter 4.

AN ACT Relating to Jury Trial in Divorce Proceedings.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 73, sec. 8; relating to jury trial; amended. Section eight of chapter seventy-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the first sentence thereof and substituting the following therefor:

'Whenever, in a hearing on a libel for divorce, any question of fact arises which may properly be submitted to a jury, issues may be framed for that purpose, under the direction of the presiding justice, and the find-
