permanent school funds, and money or credits deposited with them for perpetual care of lots in cemeteries, in the legal obligations of the United States of America; the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut; New York, and Pennsylvania, and the bonds of the several counties, cities, and towns in the several states above named which are the direct obligation of said counties, cities, and towns, and the bonds of water districts located in the state of Maine, and chartered and organized as quasi-municipal corporations under the laws thereof, which are the direct obligation of said water districts, or may deposit the same on time deposit in banks or trust companies, organized under the laws of this state or of the United States, and not otherwise; and unless otherwise specifically provided by the terms of the grant or bequest the annual income, only, shall be expended in performance of the requirements of the trust. Provided that this section shall not be construed to require any change of investments made prior to July seven, nineteen hundred twenty-three. But when the indebtedness for payment of which a sinking fund is created is refunded or paid by such city or town by a new loan, any stocks, bonds or securities in said sinking fund, other than its own bonds, may be withdrawn therefrom and shall not be regarded as pledged for payment of the new loan unless afterward returned to the sinking fund.'

Approved March 20, 1931.

Chapter 89.

AN ACT Relating to the Number of Ballots to be Provided at Elections.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 8, sec. 4. Relating to number of ballots to be provided at elections, amended. Section four of chapter eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the following, so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Number of ballots to be provided. There shall be provided for each voting place, at which an election is to be held, one set of such general ballots and one set of ballots containing any constitutional amendment or other question submitted to the vote of the people, each of not less than seventy-five for every fifty and fraction of fifty votes cast in said voting place at the next preceding election, city, state, or national, corresponding to and in congruity with the election for which said ballots are to be provided.'

Approved March 20, 1931.
