CHAP. 121

such future date or dates, at such price or prices and on such terms and conditions as may be specified in such bonds or other interest bearing obligations or in the certificates representing such preferred stock.

Without in any way restricting the general language hereof, this section shall be construed to authorize any municipal or quasi-municipal corporation referred to in this chapter to issue, upon vote of its trustees or similar governing board, bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness for the purposes herein specified and subject to the approval of the commission as herein provided. The trustees or similar governing boards of any such corporations may issue notes or other evidences of indebtedness payable at periods of less than twelve months after the date thereof when necessary to carry out the purposes of such corporations.

No railroad corporation engaged in interstate commerce shall be required to make application to the commission, or to procure its authority, consent, approval, or order, in respect of any of the matters set forth in this section or in sections forty-two and forty-three of this chapter, while and so long as such corporation is required by federal law to make application to and procure authority from the interstate commerce commission as a condition precedent to such proposed action, but nothing herein contained shall exempt any such corporation from filing with the secretary of state due notice of increases in its capital stock or from the payment of any fees required by statute.

Approved March 30, 1931.
