AN ACT Relating to Helping Teachers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 19, sec. 192; relating to helping teachers, amended. Section one hundred ninety-two of chapter nineteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following words: 'The commissioner of education may appoint one or more full time helping teachers whose duty it shall be to assist and direct the above mentioned critic teachers, to work with local school officials upon request, and to perform such other duties in the field of elementary education as the said commissioner may direct. The salary and necessary travelling expenses of such helping teachers shall be paid from the appropriation for the training of rural teachers.' So that said section when amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 192. Summer schools for training rural teachers; teachers so trained to act as rural critics in towns from which chosen. As a means of increasing the efficiency of rural education it shall be the duty of the state commissioner of education to make provision for a special school of instruction during the summer months for not more than one hundred rural teachers. The course of study and plans of instruction shall be arranged with a special view to training for rural teaching and rural leadership. Teachers eligible to attend said school shall be selected by the state commissioner of education, upon recommendation of superintendents of rural towns, in accordance with such standards of fitness as the state commissioner of education shall determine. Teachers so trained shall agree to return to the service of the towns from which they are chosen for at least one year, during which time they shall act as rural critics and helping teachers. The commissioner of education may appoint one or more full time helping teachers whose duty it shall be to assist and direct the above mentioned critic teachers, to work with local school officials upon request, and to perform such other duties in the field of

AN ACT to Amend Section One Hundred Eighteen, Chapter Twenty-nine, of the Revised Statutes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 29, sec. 118; relating to disposal of fines and forfeitures, amended. Section one hundred eighteen of chapter twenty-nine of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: 'All fines and forfeitures collected under this chapter, when the arrest is made by a member of the state highway police, or inspector, together with any part of the costs taxed by the court for such member or inspector, shall be paid one-half forthwith to the treasurer of state and applied as provided in section one hundred seventeen, and one-half into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted. When the arrest is made by any other officer, all fines and forfeitures, and in either case, except as above stated, all costs, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 118. One half to treasurer of state; one half to county. Municipal and police courts and trial justices in their respective counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court over all prosecutions for all violations of the provisions of this chapter. All fines and forfeitures collected under this chapter, when the arrest is made by a member of the state highway police, or inspector, together with any part of the costs taxed by the court for such member or inspector, shall be paid one-half forthwith to the treasurer of state and applied as provided in section one hundred seventeen, and one-half into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted. When the arrest is made by any other officer, all fines and forfeitures, and in either case, except as above stated, all costs, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted.'

Approved April 2, 1931.
