Chapter 189.

AN ACT to Amend Section One Hundred Eighteen, Chapter Twenty-nine, of the Revised Statutes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 29, sec. 118; relating to disposal of fines and forfeitures, amended. Section one hundred eighteen of chapter twenty-nine of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence and inserting in lieu thereof the following: 'All fines and forfeitures collected under this chapter, when the arrest is made by a member of the state highway police, or inspector, together with any part of the costs taxed by the court for such member or inspector, shall be paid one-half forthwith to the treasurer of state and applied as provided in section one hundred seventeen, and one-half into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted. When the arrest is made by any other officer, all fines and forfeitures, and in either case, except as above stated, all costs, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 118. One half to treasurer of state; one half to county. Municipal and police courts and trial justices in their respective counties shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the superior court over all prosecutions for all violations of the provisions of this chapter. All fines and forfeitures collected under this chapter, when the arrest is made by a member of the state highway police, or inspector, together with any part of the costs taxed by the court for such member or inspector, shall be paid one-half forthwith to the treasurer of state and applied as provided in section one hundred seventeen, and one-half into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted. When the arrest is made by any other officer, all fines and forfeitures, and in either case, except as above stated, all costs, shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the offense is prosecuted.'

Approved April 2, 1931.
