CHAP. 191

and twelfth lines of said section the words 'and if said report is not filed by the fifteenth day of the month such distributor shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars a day for each day so in arrears. If said tax is not paid to the treasurer of state on or before the first day of the month as above provided, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be added and collected'; so that as amended said section shall read as follows:

'Sec. 84. Penalty when distributor fails to render report to state auditor. Every distributor shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, render a report to the state auditor stating the number of gallons on internal combustion engine fuels received, sold and used in the state by him during the preceding calendar month on forms to be furnished by said auditor; and said report shall contain such further information pertinent thereto as said auditor shall prescribe. On or before the first day of the calendar month succeeding the filing of said report each distributor shall pay to the treasurer of state a tax of four cents a gallon upon each gallon so reported as sold or distributed, and if said report is not filed by the fifteenth day of the month such distributor shall be liable to a penalty of five dollars a day for each day in arrears. If said tax is not paid to the treasurer of state on or before the first day of the month as above provided, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be added and collected. On or before the first day of each calendar month the state auditor shall transmit to the treasurer of state such information as shall show all taxes due from each distributor under the provisions of sections eighty to ninety.'

Approved April 2, 1931.

AN ACT Relative to the Minimum Age for Fishing Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 38, sec. 19; relating to fishing licenses, amended. Section nineteen of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the whole of the first paragraph thereof, and by inserting in place thereof the following:

'Sec. 19. Minimum age 16 years. No resident of the state over sixteen years of age and no non-resident over the age of ten years shall fish in any inland waters of the state except in accordance with the following provisions:'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 38, sec. 19, sub-section 3; relating to non-resident licenses, amended. Sub-section (3) of said section nineteen of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out, in the first line thereof, the word "two," and by inserting in lieu thereof the word 'three'; and by inserting after the word "license" in the fifth line thereof the following: 'also a junior non-resident license, which shall be a season license covering all non-residents between the ages of ten and fourteen years, inclusive, to cost one dollar and fifteen cents,' so that said sub-section (3), as amended, shall read as follows:

'(3). Three classes non-resident licenses; junior non-resident license. Non-resident licenses shall be of three classes, a month license to cost three dollars and fifteen cents, effective for thirty days from the date thereof, and a season license, effective for the entire season, to cost five dollars and fifteen cents, but the amount paid for a month license shall be credited on the purchase of a year license; also a junior non-resident license, which shall be a season license covering all non-residents between the ages of ten and fourteen years, inclusive, to cost one dollar and fifteen cents. Fifteen cents shall be retained by the agent.'

Approved April 2, 1931.

Chapter 192.

AN ACT Relating to Superintendent of Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 19, sec. 64; relating to meeting of school committees of towns composing a union, amended. Section sixty-four of chapter nineteen of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "shall" in the twenty-second line the following: 'subject to the conditions hereinafter provided'; by striking out the word "two-thirds" in the fourth from the last line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word 'majority'; by adding to said section the following: 'The election of a superintendent of schools, as herein provided, shall not be effective unless said election shall be approved by the superintending school committee of the town in the said union having a majority of the schools in the towns comprising the union and by the superintending school committee of the town paying not less than one-half of the salary aforesaid, exclusive of any sums paid by the state for the purpose'; so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sec. 64. First meeting to be held upon notification of state commissioner; subsequent meetings; union superintendent removed for cause; salary; tenure, etc. The superintending school committees of the towns
