Chapter 194.

AN ACT Relating to Disclosure Proceedings.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 124, sec. 23; relating to subpoena to issue to debtor to appear and disclose; errors in application or subpoena may be amended, amended. Section twenty-three of chapter one hundred twenty-four of the revised statutes is hereby amended, by striking out the words "the petitioner or his attorney" in the fourth and fifth lines thereof, and by further striking out the words "petitioner or his attorney" in the sixth line of said section, so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 23. To appear before magistrate within said county in the town in which the debtor resides. Such magistrate shall thereupon issue under his hand and seal a subpoena to the debtor commanding him to appear before any such disinterested magistrate within said county in the town in which the debtor resides, and in case there is no such magistrate in the town where the debtor resides then in the shire town of said county, at a time and place therein named to make full and true disclosure, on oath, of all his business and property affairs. And a judge of any municipal court may hold disclosure court upon a subpoena returnable as aforesaid in any town in which the regular terms of the court of which he is judge are held. The application shall be annexed to the subpoena. Any town in which the regular sessions of the superior court are held, shall be considered a shire town for the purpose of this section. No application or subpoena shall be deemed incorrect for want of form only, or for circumstantial errors or mistakes, when the person and the case can be rightly understood. Such errors and mistakes may be amended on application of either party.'

Approved April 2, 1931.

Chapter 195.

AN ACT Relating to Transportation of Paroled Prisoners.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 147, sec. 40; relating to transportation of paroled prisoners, amended. Section forty of chapter one hundred forty-seven of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said section and inserting in place thereof the following section:

'Sec. 40. State to furnish clothing and transportation to paroled pris-
