ment for not more than ninety days, or by both said fine and imprisonment, except as hereafter noted:’

Approved April 2, 1931.

Chapter 208.AN ACT Relative to Hunting Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, sec. 41; relating to certain hunting licenses, amended. Section forty-one of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out, in lines three and four of sub-section six thereof, the following words: “but any resident under eighteen years of age may hunt without a license.” and by inserting in place thereof the following: ‘Any resident under the age of sixteen years may hunt without a license, provided he is accompanied by a parent or guardian at all times while in the fields or forests or on the waters or ice of the state with firearms in his possession.’ so that said sub-section, as amended, shall read as follows:

‘6. Resident under 16 may hunt without license if accompanied by parent or guardian. Hunting licenses shall not be issued to any non-resident under eighteen years of age unless the written consent of the parent or guardian is attached to the application. Any resident under the age of sixteen years may hunt without a license, provided he is accompanied by a parent or guardian at all times while in the fields or forests or on the waters or ice of the state with firearms in his possession.’

Approved April 2, 1931.

Chapter 209.AN ACT Relating to Trial Terms in York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 91, sec. 21; relating to trial terms, amended. Section twenty-one of chapter ninety-one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the last paragraph of said section and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:

York county trial terms. ‘York: At Alfred on the second Tuesday of January and first Tuesdays of May and October.’
