OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-fifth Legislature

1931

[supplied from page 1 of volume]

CHAP. 227

enacted it shall be interpreted to be superseded by such other legislation passed by this legislature as may conflict with any sections hereby amended.

Sec. 34. Emergency clause. In view of the emergency recited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 226.AN ACT Relative to Trapping Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, sec. 42; relating to trapping licenses, amended. Section forty-two of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the first and second lines thereof the words "except bobcats and rabbits", so that the first sentence of said section forty-two, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 42. Rabbits excepted in license requirement. Any resident who traps for any fur-bearing animal except rabbits shall annually procure a license therefor from the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, paying therefor ten dollars; provided, however, that the annual fee for such trapping within the limits of cities, town and plantations of the state shall be five dollars; provided, further, that whoever hunts or traps for any beaver on any land in the state opened to beaver trapping by said commissioner shall pay therefor a fee of ten dollars annually, and an additional fee of two dollars for the sealing and stamping of each skin as required by law, skins to be so sealed and stamped by game wardens.'

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 227.AN ACT Relating to the Gray Game Preserve.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38; relative to game preserve, amended. Chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the third paragraph on page six hundred ninety-two of the revised statutes (which said paragraph describes the Standish game preserve) the following paragraph:

'Gray game preserve; territory of. Gray Game Preserve: the following described territory situated in the town of Gray in the county of Cumberland: Beginning at Gray Corner following the Poland Spring road to Dry Mills, thence following the North Raymond road to the guide post at intersection of East Raymond road, thence following the East Raymond road to Douglass Mill road; thence following the Douglass Mill and Furbush road to "Sand Brook", so-called, on shore of Little Sebago Lake; thence following east shore of Little Sebago Lake to Foster shore, so-called, at intersection of Foster and Ramsdell road, so-called, near camp of Dr. Cushing following last named road in easterly direction to intersection of Ramsdell road near homestead of Edgar Foster, thence in a southerly direction following said Ramsdell Road to intersection of road leading from Gray to West Gray, thence following last named road to Gray Corner to point of beginning.'

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 228.

AN ACT Relating to the Salary of the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 125, sec. 19; relating to salary of the commissioner of agriculture, amended. Section nineteen of chapter one hundred twenty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out all of the first sentence of said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Salary increased. The commissioner of agriculture shall receive an annual salary of three thousand five hundred dollars, provided, however, that the governor and council may increase said salary to an amount not in excess of four thousand five hundred dollars.'

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 229.

AN ACT Relating to Descriptive Roadside Signs Indicating Names of Rivers, Lakes, etc.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Certain waters and mountains to be designated by markers. The state highway commission is hereby authorized and directed to place suitable markers similar to those used in other states, along the state highways
