Chapter 243.

AN ACT to Establish a Game Preserve in the City of Lewiston, Androscoggin County, and Monmouth, Kennebec County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game preserve in Lewiston and Monmouth, established. No person shall, at any time, hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild bird, or wild animal, within the limits of the following described tract, or territory, situated in the city of Lewiston, county of Androscoggin, and the town of Monmouth, county of Kennebec, to wit:

Limits of preserve. This tract or territory is to be known as Thorncrag-Stanton Bird Sanctuary, as follows:

Bounded on the north by land of H. Osmond Wood; on the east by land formerly owned by Benjamin Thorn; on the south by the road leading from Barker's Mills Schoolhouse to Thorne's Corner; on the west by land of H. Osmond Wood and George H. McGibbon; said tract being wholly situated within the city of Lewiston in said county of Androscoggin and containing forty-five acres, more or less.

Also Lewiston; the most northeasterly corner of land of the estate of George K. Davis, bounded and described as follows, to wit: On the northwest by land of the so-called Ham Farm; on the northeast by Pleasant Street; on the southwest by land of Joseph Breault; and on the southeast by a line extending northeasterly from the easterly corner of said Breault's land and being a continuation of the southeast boundary of said Breault's land, containing two acres, more or less.

Monmouth; beginning at a maple tree at the southeast corner of the Ricker Farm now or formerly so-called, thence running west, northward two hundred forty-four rods to a stooping cedar in what is now or was formerly a swamp, thence south twenty-two and one-half degrees west, one hundred twenty-two rods to a stake near Wyman pond now or formerly called; thence east, southeast two hundred forty-four rods to the lot first conveyed by a deed from Benjamin Woodbury to Mary A. Davis; thence by said lot above described as first conveyed by said deed, one hundred twenty-two rods to the point of beginning, containing about one hundred thirty-two acres, more or less.

CHAP. 244

Sec. 2. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to the general penalty provided under section one hundred and seven of chapter thirty-eight of the revised statutes, for the violation of the fish and game laws.

Sec. 3. Limits may be enlarged. The commissioner of inland fisheries and game is hereby empowered to enlarge the territory in this game preserve, or sanctuary, upon petition of owners of the additional land to be included.

Approved April 3, 1931.

Chapter 244.

AN ACT in Regard to the Practice of Any Healing Art or Science.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Practice of healing arts and sciences regulated. No person, firm, organization or corporation shall engage in the practice of any healing art or science, to be practiced on the human body, and charge a fee therefor, without having first met the requirements of one of the examining boards designated in chapter twenty-one of the revised statutes and having been legally licensed by one of said boards; provided that nothing in this act shall be construed so as to affect or prevent the practice of the religious tenets of any church in the ministration to the sick or suffering by mental or spiritual means.

Sec. 2. Registration of exempted persons. The provisions of the foregoing section shall not apply to any person engaged within the state, prior to January first, nineteen hundred thirty-one, in the practice of any healing art or science as provided in section one, but such persons shall be permitted to continue such practice without meeting the requirements of any of said examining boards upon registering with the clerk of the municipality where such person resides and paying a registration fee of ten dollars and an annual license fee of five dollars per year. The receipt issued by any town or city clerk in the state for such annual license fee shall constitute a certificate entitling the holder thereof to practice under the terms of this section. No person who has been convicted of a felony shall be entitled to register or renew the license herein provided. The license fee herein provided shall not apply to any person registered in accordance with the requirements of any of the examining boards designated in chapter twenty-one of the revised statutes or engaged in the practice of the religious tenets of any church.
