Chapter 86.

AN ACT Relating to Partition of Real Estate.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 78, § 5, amended. Section 5 of chapter 78 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 5. Proceedings, when equal division cannot be made. When the whole or any part of the premises, of greater value than any party's share, cannot be divided without great inconvenience, the same may be assigned to any 1 or more of the parties, who will accept and pay to the others such sums as the commissioners award to make the partition just; but such partition shall not be established by the court, until all such sums are paid or secured, with interest, to the satisfaction of the parties entitled thereto or to the satisfaction of the judge of the probate court having jurisdiction thereof; nor if inconsistent with the condition of the devise, under which they claim; but in such assignment males shall be preferred to females, and the elder to the younger children of the same sex.'

Approved March 14, 1933.

Chapter 87.

AN ACT Relating to Fur Farms.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 9, ¶ 4, amended. Paragraph 4 of section 9 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'He may issue permits to any person, firm or corporation to engage in the business of propagating game birds, game, or fur-bearing animals under such regulations as he shall establish. He may issue to any person, firm, or corporation permit to fence in or enclose land for the above named purpose. When it appears that such application is made in good faith, and upon the payment of an annual fee of $5, said commissioner may issue to the applicant a breeder's license permitting the breeding and rearing of any species of game birds or fur-bearing animals within such enclosure. Such licensed breeders may at any time sell, transport, or kill and sell, and any licensed person, firm, or corporation, resident of the state of Maine, may purchase, have in possession, or transport any game birds, game or fur-bearing animals, or the skins thereof, raised by virtue of the provisions of this section, under such regulations as said commissioner may establish. No person shall engage in the business of breeding or rearing any game birds
