season as may be declared by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this section. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any beaver, or part thereof, taken in violation of any provision of this section. It shall also be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, to sell, give away, buy, accept as a gift, offer for transportation or transport any beaver skin or beaver skins unless each skin is marked with an official seal by the chief game warden of the department of inland fisheries and game in whose district such beaver skin or beaver skins were taken. Any beaver skin or beaver skins that come into Maine in any manner from any other state or country must have the official stamp, tag or seal of the state or country from which said skin or skins were taken. Any beaver skin or skins that are transported into Maine, or are in Maine that are not marked, as above stated, must be presented to the chief inland fish and game warden within a reasonable time, in whose district the owner or possessor of said skin or skins resides to be stamped. The chief game warden after inspecting said skins may stamp the same as though they were taken in this state and the owner or possessor shall pay the sum of $2 for each skin so stamped. All beaver skins shall be marked within 30 days from the closing of the open period whether they are for sale or not.'

Approved March 20, 1933.

Chapter 132.

AN ACT to Regulate the Speed of Motor Vehicles.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Speed of motor vehicles regulated. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 52 and 69 of chapter 29 of the revised statutes, the state highway commission shall have authority to restrict the speeds of either commercial or pleasure vehicles at any and all points on the highway where in the opinion of the commission a rate of speed less than that now authorized by law will minimize the danger of accident and in each such place shall have authority to fix the rate of speed in accordance with its own judgment and place all necessary signs to give notice thereof.

Approved March 20, 1933.
