AN ACT to Amend Sections Forty-eight to Fifty-one Inclusive of Chapter Twenty-eight of the Revised Statutes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Special resolve appropriations regulated. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 48-51 inclusive of chapter 28 of the revised statutes as amended by chapter 154 of the public laws of 1931, all special road and bridge appropriations shall be expended in accordance with the terms of the resolve appropriating the funds therefor.

Approved March 24, 1933.

Chapter 142.

AN ACT Relating to Inland Fish and Game Wardens; Powers, Duties and Service of Processes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 12, amended. Section 12 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 12. Inland fish and game wardens; appointment, powers and duties; tenure; bond; service of processes. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, upon recommendation of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, may appoint suitable persons as inland fish and game wardens, in accordance with the provisions of sections 13-A to 13-H, inclusive, and who shall hold office under the conditions set forth in said sections, who shall enforce all laws relating to inland fisheries and game, and all rules and regulations in relation thereto, arrest all violators thereof, and prosecute all offenses against the same; said inland fish and game wardens shall have the same power to serve criminal processes against such offenders, and to arrest and prosecute camp trespassers, or those suspected of larceny from any cottage, camp, or other building, and shall be allowed the same fees as sheriffs and their deputies, for like services; (all such fees being paid to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game) and they shall have the same right as sheriffs to require aid in executing the duties of their office. All wardens and state paid deputy wardens shall, before being qualified to discharge the duties required by this chapter give bond to the treasurer of state, in the sum of $2000, with two sureties, or with a surety company authorized to do business in the state, as surety, approved by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office. Inland fish and game wardens may serve all processes pertaining to the collection of penalties for violation of the inland fish and game laws.'

Approved March 24, 1933.

Chapter 143.

AN ACT Reducing the Bounty on Bobcat, Loupcervier and Canada Lynx.

Emergency Preamble. Whereas, at this particular period the estimated and probable revenues of the state for the ensuing 2 years will be insufficient to meet the estimated expenditures of the state, based on the requirements of the law as now existing, and

Whereas, it is imperative that all expenditures not productive of a corresponding resulting benefit to the state be curtailed at once, and

Whereas, a bounty on bobcat, loupcervier and Canada lynx is such an expenditure, and

Whereas, the foregoing facts render the passage of this act immediately necessary for the preservation of public peace, health and safety and constitutes an emergency within the meaning of the constitution, now therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 77, amended. Section 77 of chapter 38 of the revised
