PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-sixth Legislature

ties; tenure; bond; service of processes. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, upon recommendation of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, may appoint suitable persons as inland fish and game wardens, in accordance with the provisions of sections 13-A to 13-H, inclusive, and who shall hold office under the conditions set forth in said sections, who shall enforce all laws relating to inland fisheries and game, and all rules and regulations in relation thereto, arrest all violators thereof, and prosecute all offenses against the same; said inland fish and game wardens shall have the same power to serve criminal processes against such offenders, and to arrest and prosecute camp trespassers, or those suspected of larceny from any cottage, camp, or other building, and shall be allowed the same fees as sheriffs and their deputies, for like services; (all such fees being paid to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game) and they shall have the same right as sheriffs to require aid in executing the duties of their office. All wardens and state paid deputy wardens shall, before being qualified to discharge the duties required by this chapter give bond to the treasurer of state, in the sum of $2000, with two sureties, or with a surety company authorized to do business in the state, as surety, approved by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office. Inland fish and game wardens may serve all processes pertaining to the collection of penalties for violation of the inland fish and game laws.'

Approved March 24, 1933.

Chapter 143.

AN ACT Reducing the Bounty on Bobcat, Loupcervier and Canada Lynx.

Emergency Preamble. Whereas, at this particular period the estimated and probable revenues of the state for the ensuing 2 years will be insufficient to meet the estimated expenditures of the state, based on the requirements of the law as now existing, and

Whereas, it is imperative that all expenditures not productive of a corresponding resulting benefit to the state be curtailed at once, and

Whereas, a bounty on bobcat, loupcervier and Canada lynx is such an expenditure, and

Whereas, the foregoing facts render the passage of this act immediately necessary for the preservation of public peace, health and safety and constitutes an emergency within the meaning of the constitution, now therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 77, amended. Section 77 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in place thereof :

'Sec. 77. Bounty on bobcat, loup cervier, and Canada lynx. There shall be a bounty of $10 for every bobcat, loup cervier and Canada lynx which is killed within the state, to be paid by the treasurer of state to the person killing the same upon compliance with the following conditions. No bounty shall be paid unless the claimant, within 5 days after he has killed such animal, or has returned from the hunting in which he killed it, exhibits to the town treasurer the entire skin thereof, with the ears, nose and tail thereon in as perfect a state as when killed, except natural decay, and signs a certificate under oath which said treasurer may administer, stating that he killed such animal and the time and place within the state. Such certificate must be approved by and bear the signature of the warden or chief warden in whose district the animal was killed, stating that he believes the cat to have been killed at the time and place stated therein, and the treasurer shall thereupon cut off the whole of the tail from the skin and forward the same by mail to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, together with the claimant's certificate in the following form :

.....Justice of the Peace.

Upon receipt by the state auditor of a certificate from the commissioner showing that said commissioner has received the tail of the bobcat, loup cervier or Canada lynx from the treasurer sent as aforesaid, together with said treasurer's certificate, said state auditor shall audit the claim for bounty and the same shall be paid forthwith by the treasurer of state to the claimant. The town treasurer for administering the oath to a claimant's certificate as above, and for forwarding the same with the tail of the animal to the commissioner shall be paid by the claimant the sum of 25 cents.'

Emergency Clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 24, 1933.

Chapter 144.

AN ACT Providing for the Transfer of Certain Persons Committed to Jail to the State Prison for Safe-Keeping.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 146, amended. Chapter 146 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

'Sec. 30. Prisoner on appeal may be detained at state prison. When a verdict of guilty is rendered against any person for an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, and such person is committed to jail
