Chapter 144.

AN ACT Providing for the Transfer of Certain Persons Committed to Jail to the State Prison for Safe-Keeping.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 146, amended. Chapter 146 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

'Sec. 30. Prisoner on appeal may be detained at state prison. When a verdict of guilty is rendered against any person for an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, and such person is committed to jail pending decision by the supreme judicial court on exceptions, report, motion in arrest of judgment, writ of error, appeal or otherwise, or is committed to jail to await action of a grand jury after a finding of probable cause, the sheriff of the county in which such person is committed to jail may certify, in writing, to any justice of the superior or supreme judicial court, in term time or in vacation, that in his opinion such person is dangerous and liable to attempt to escape from such jail; thereupon such justice may order, after hearing, that said person be transferred and committed to the state prison for safe-keeping to await the final decision from the supreme judicial court. The county committing such person for safe-keeping shall be liable to the state to the amount of $1 for each day of such imprisonment.'

Approved March 24, 1933.
