name of the town in which the clams were dug. This provision shall not apply in any way to clams in hermetically sealed packages.

Sec. 8. Right of search. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions relating to the buying and selling of clams, the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries and his wardens may search at any time in suspected places, including buildings of every description, and vessel or vehicle that they may believe is used in taking, holding or transporting clams and may seize and remove all clams taken, held or offered for sale in violation of the provisions of any law relating to the buying, selling or transporting of clams but nothing herein shall be held to confer the right to search a dwelling house without a warrant therefor.

Sec. 9. Violations of laws regarding buying, selling or transporting clams; penalty. Any person, firm, or corporation who being licensed as above provided violates any of the laws or regulations of the state regarding buying, selling, or transporting clams shall be punished by a fine not less than $50 nor more than $500 and have his license revoked.

Sec. 10. Buying or selling clams without a license; penalty. Any person, firm, or corporation either by themselves as principals or by their servant or agents, who buys or sells clams not having obtained the license provided for herein, or who buys clams taken from areas declared by the commissioner of agriculture to be contaminated shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

Sec. 11. Jurisdiction. Municipal courts and trial justices shall have original jurisdiction concurrent with the superior court of actions brought for the recovery of penalties imposed by this chapter and of prosecutions for violations hereof.

Emergency Clause. In view of the emergency recited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Revisor's note: This chapter amends P. L. 1933, c. 2, §§ 56-65.

Approved March 28, 1933.

licity Bureau, 1 member of the Associated Industries of Maine, 1 member of the Maine Hotel Association, 1 outstanding member of newspaper profession in Maine, 1 outstanding member of political party casting the next largest number of votes in the last election for presidential electors, and 2 other citizens of the state. All appointive members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor and confirmed by the council. Said official members shall hold office during their respective terms. Of the 7 other herein designated appointees 4 shall hold office for 2 years, and 3 for 3 years; and thereafter appointments shall be for a term of 3 years.

The governor shall be the chairman. There shall be a vice-chairman and a secretary who shall be elected from the commission from their members.

Sec. 2. Appropriations; duties of commission. The sum of $50,000 is hereby annually appropriated for the purpose of advertising and publicly setting forth and displaying agricultural, industrial and recreational resources, activities and attractions of the state, of which sum not exceeding $4,000 may be used for the expenses and administrative purposes of the commission. The commission shall arrange for, authorize and supervise the expenditure of all money appropriated under this section and shall have full authority to execute contracts for the preparation, publication, dissemination and furnishing of information incidental to the purposes of this act. Expenditures thereunder shall be paid for only on vouchers approved by the commission and the state controller.

Sec. 3. Unexpended balances. All unexpended balances remaining at the end of any fiscal year, shall be carried over to the fund herein appropriated to be expended in the succeeding year for the purposes provided for in this act.

Sec. 4. Repealing clause. All acts and resolves inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.
