Chapter 253.

AN ACT Relating to Hunting and Trapping Bear.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Hunting and trapping of bear, regulated. It shall be lawful to hunt and trap bear at any time, anywhere, in the state of Maine from October 1st to November 31st, both days inclusive, and it shall also be lawful for any farmer or owner of live stock to kill bear at any time while they are on his own property. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 31, 1933.

Chapter 254.

AN ACT Relating to Expenditures in Connection with the Nomination of Candidates for Elective Office.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Organized groups amenable to provisions of R. S., c. 7, § 22. All the provisions of section 22 of chapter 7 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 263 of the public laws of 1931, and by section 1 of chapter 282 of the public laws of the special session of 1932, shall apply to any club or group of voters organized for the purpose of or actually participating in any campaign on behalf of a candidate for nomination to elective office or tending either directly or indirectly to aid the candidacy of any person for any nomination whatsoever.

Sec. 2. Persons employed in furthering candidacies for nomination shall register. Any person accepting employment to aid, promote or further the candidacy of any person for nomination to elective office whose remuneration for such employment shall exceed the sum of $5 shall, within 48 hours after accepting such employment, cause his name to be entered upon a docket as hereinafter provided and shall file in the office of the secretary of state a full and complete statement of the basis of compensation on which his services in behalf of such a candidate are being rendered.

Sec. 3. Docket to be kept for registration of those aiding candidates. The secretary of state shall prepare and keep a docket for the registration of every person employed to promote or further the candidacy of any person who is seeking nomination to elective office, which docket shall be open to public inspection during the office hours of said secretary of state and shall contain the name and address of each such person, the name
