

MAINE STATE LEGISLATURE

The following document is provided by the
LAW AND LEGISLATIVE DIGITAL LIBRARY
at the Maine State Law and Legislative Reference Library
<http://legislature.maine.gov/lawlib>

Reproduced from scanned originals with text recognition applied
(searchable text may contain some errors and/or omissions)

ACTS AND RESOLVES

AS PASSED BY THE

Eighty-sixth Legislature

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

From April 4, 1931, to March 31, 1933

AND MISCELLANEOUS STATE PAPERS

---

Published by the Secretary of State in conjunction with the Revisor of Statutes in accordance with the Resolves of the Legislature approved June 28, 1820, March 18, 1840, March 16, 1842, and an Act approved April 2, 1931.

---

KENNEBEC JOURNAL COMPANY
AUGUSTA, MAINE

1933

PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-sixth Legislature

1933

[supplied from page 1 of volume]

Chapter 253.

AN ACT Relating to Hunting and Trapping Bear.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Hunting and trapping of bear, regulated. It shall be lawful to hunt and trap bear at any time, anywhere, in the state of Maine from October 1st to November 31st, both days inclusive, and it shall also be lawful for any farmer or owner of live stock to kill bear at any time while they are on his own property. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 31, 1933.

---

Chapter 254.

AN ACT Relating to Expenditures in Connection with the Nomination of Candidates for Elective Office.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Organized groups amenable to provisions of R. S., c. 7, § 22. All the provisions of section 22 of chapter 7 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 2 of chapter 263 of the public laws of 1931, and by section 1 of chapter 282 of the public laws of the special session of 1932, shall apply to any club or group of voters organized for the purpose of or actually participating in any campaign on behalf of a candidate for nomination to elective office or tending either directly or indirectly to aid the candidacy of any person for any nomination whatsoever.

Sec. 2. Persons employed in furthering candidacies for nomination shall register. Any person accepting employment to aid, promote or further the candidacy of any person for nomination to elective office whose remuneration for such employment shall exceed the sum of $5 shall, within 48 hours after accepting such employment, cause his name to be entered upon a docket as hereinafter provided and shall file in the office of the secretary of state a full and complete statement of the basis of compensation on which his services in behalf of such a candidate are being rendered.

Sec. 3. Docket to be kept for registration of those aiding candidates. The secretary of state shall prepare and keep a docket for the registration of every person employed to promote or further the candidacy of any person who is seeking nomination to elective office, which docket shall be open to public inspection during the office hours of said secretary of state and shall contain the name and address of each such person, the name of the candidate in whose behalf he is interested, the name of the office for which such candidate is seeking nomination and a clear statement showing the basis of compensation, which shall in no event be dependent upon a contingency.

Sec. 4. Record to be kept of money received for or expended by those furthering a candidate's nomination. Any person, firm, association or organization who shall receive money for labor, rent, printing, advertising or for any other service intended or designed to further the candidacy of a person for nomination to elective office or who shall furnish any such service or material on credit shall keep a careful and accurate detailed statement of the money received and the credit extended and preserve the same for a full period of 15 months following the date of the delivery or rendering of the materials or service. Every candidate for elective office and every person, firm, association, committee, organization, club, group of voters or corporation who shall hire, contract for, arrange or otherwise provide or secure any material or service intended or designed to further the candidacy of himself or of any other person for nomination to elective office, shall keep a full, detailed and correct account of the money expended and the liabilities incurred and preserve the same for a full period of 15 months following the date of the delivery or rendering of the materials or service.

Sec. 5. Notice to be given of provisions of § 4. It shall be the duty of any person, whether candidate or political agent or interested worker, who arranges for any labor, rent, printing, advertising or other service intended or designed to further the candidacy of a person for nomination to elective office to advise each and every individual with or from whom he contracts such labor, rent, printing, advertising or other service of the requirements of section 4 of this act.

Sec. 6. Committee to investigate. Before the adjournment of the legislature biennially it shall be the duty of the president of the senate to name 2 members on the part of the senate, and of the speaker of the house to name 3 members on the part of the house, to serve as a special committee to investigate the expenditures made and liabilities incurred by and on behalf of candidates seeking nomination to elective office and such committee shall meet in Augusta within 5 days next following any primary election, or convention to examine all returns of expenditures made under the provisions of chapter 7 of the revised statutes as amended and all returns made in accordance with the provisions of this act.

Said committee may on its own motion and shall at the request of any candidate make a complete investigation into the expenditures made by or on behalf of any candidate and for that purpose shall have full authority to summon and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of records, books and papers and to take evidence pertaining to the matters under investigation.

CHAP. 255

The attorney general shall act as counsel for the committee and conduct the examination of witnesses called before it and in the event of any infraction of the election laws or any omissions on the part of candidates, their duly authorized political agents or other persons, to account for all expenditures made or liabilities incurred in the conduct of election shall cause appropriate proceedings for the punishment of such offenders to be instituted.

Sec. 7. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500.

Approved March 31, 1933.

---

---

Chapter 255.

AN ACT Relative to Closed Time on Deer.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 38, § 61, amended. Paragraph 1 of section 61 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘There shall be an annual closed season on deer in the counties of Androscoggin, Cumberland, Kennebec, Knox, Lincoln, Sagadahoc, Waldo and York from the 1st day of December of each year to the 31st day of October of the following year, both days inclusive, and in the counties of Aroostook, Penobscot, Somerset, Piscataquis, Franklin and Oxford from the 1st day of December of each year to the 15th day of October of the following year, both days inclusive, and in the counties of Hancock and Washington from the 16th day of December of each year to the 31st day of October of the following year, both days inclusive, except that on the island of Mount Desert, and in the town of Deer Isle, and in the town of Stonington, in the county of Hancock, and on Cross Island and on Scotch Island, in the county of Washington, and in Isle au Haut, in the county of Knox, and on Swan Island in the county of Sagadahoc, and in game sanctuaries as established by law, where closed season is perpetual, during which said closed seasons, except as hereinafter provided, it shall be unlawful to hunt any deer or have in possession any part thereof; and no person shall during the open seasons above named, except as hereinafter provided, kill or have in possession, more than 1 deer or part thereof. A person lawfully killing a deer in open season, shall have a reasonable time in which to transport the same to his home and may have the same in possession at his home