exposes for sale lobster meat after the same shall have been taken from the shell, without the tail meat being whole and intact and not less than $5\frac{1}{2}$ $4\frac{3}{4}$ inches nor more than $6\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length, when laid out straight and measured from end to end, not including the small part that is on the body end of the tail meat, shall be liable to a penalty of \$10 for each pound of meat so shipped, transported, carried, bought, given away, sold, or exposed for sale. Any person or corporation in the business of common carrier of merchandise who shall knowingly carry or transport from place to place lobster meat after the same shall have been taken from the shell, without the tail meat being whole and intact and not less than $4\frac{3}{4}$ nor more than $6\frac{1}{4}$ inches in length when laid out straight and measured as above provided, shall be liable to a penalty of \$50 upon each conviction thereof. All lobster meat so illegally shipped, carried, bought, given away, sold, or exposed for sale shall be liable to seizure and may be confiscated.

The commissioner in his discretion may issue permits to dealers who request them, on payment of $10, whenever said commissioner is satisfied that said applicant for permit will take meat only from legal lobsters. Persons, firms or corporations holding permits are required to put on each package of meat the name and number of their license, place of business, date meat was taken from shell and number of pounds in package or other container and the purchaser shall be required to hold all data referring to lobster meat until the meat is sold. Any person violating the terms of his permit shall be punished by the fines and penalties provided in section 20.'

Approved December 16, 1933.

Chapter 295.

AN ACT to Amend the Law Relating to Savings Banks Investments.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 57, § 27, amended. Section 27 of chapter 57 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to read as follows:

'XXII. Home Owners' Loan Corporation Bonds. In the bonds or other interest-bearing obligations of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation organized under an Act of Congress entitled Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933, and approved on June 13, 1933.'

Approved December 16, 1933.
