Chapter 57.

AN ACT to Authorize the Treasurer and County Commissioners of York County to Procure a Loan, and Issue Bonds of Said County Therefor, for the Purpose of Rebuilding the Court House.

Emergency Preamble. Whereas, the York county court house, situated at Alfred in said York county, was destroyed by fire on February 8, 1933, and it is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public health, peace, and safety that said court house be rebuilt at the earliest possible date, and it now becomes necessary for the county commissioners of York county, to provide funds for such purpose, in the judgment of this legislature such facts constitute an emergency as contemplated by the constitution of the state of Maine, now therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Loan authorized. The treasurer of the county of York is authorized to procure by loan on the faith and responsibility of said county, a sum of money not exceeding $150,000, exclusive of and in addition to the loans authorized by existing statutes, for the purpose of rebuilding the York county court house at Alfred, destroyed by fire on February 8, 1933.

Sec. 2. Issuance of bonds authorized. The treasurer of York county is hereby authorized to issue bonds of said county therefor, with interest coupons attached, to an amount not exceeding $150,000, said bonds to bear interest payable semi-annually at a rate not exceeding 4% per year; the principal to be paid at such times, not later than 40 years from the date thereof, as the county commissioners may fix; said bonds to be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by the county commissioners of said county, and the coupons to bear the facsimile signature of said county treasurer.

Sec. 3. County commissioners, duty of. The county commissioners of said county are hereby authorized to issue said bonds in such denominations as they may deem expedient, and may provide for their maturity at varying dates, in no case more than 40 years from the date thereof.

CHAP. 58

Sec. 4. Sinking fund created. The county commissioners are hereby authorized to create a sinking fund to provide for the payment of said bonds at maturity.

Emergency Clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 28, 1933.

Chapter 58.

AN ACT in Regard to the Plantation of Allagash.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Allagash plantation organization repealed; corporate existence survives for certain purposes. The organization of the plantation of Allagash, done by the commissioners of the county of Aroostook, June 14, 1886, pursuant to authority thereto conferred by chapter 177 of the private and special laws of 1875, is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the corporate existence, powers, duties, and liabilities of said plantation shall survive for the purpose of prosecuting and defending all pending suits and causes of suits to which said plantation is or may be a party, and all needful processes growing out of the same, and for the further purpose of providing for the payment of all or any judgments which may be rendered against said plantation and to pay state, county, and forestry district taxes assessed for the year 1933 and 1934.

Sec. 2. Unexpended school funds to be paid to treasurer of state. All funds unexpended for school purposes at the time when this act is effective out of amounts raised by said plantation for school purposes, or out of amounts paid by the state for school purposes, shall be paid by the treasurer of said plantation or such other person in whose custody such funds may be, to the treasurer of state. Such amounts, so received, shall constitute a fund for school purposes, of which the income only shall be expended and applied for the schooling of children resident within the limits of the present plantation.

Sec. 3. Former enabling act repealed. Chapter 177 of the private and special laws of 1875 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. Effective date of act; referendum. This act shall take effect when accepted and approved at a meeting of the legal voters of the territory embraced within the limits of Allagash plantation, to be specially called and held for such purpose, not later than 4 months from the date of approval of this act. This meeting shall be called, advertised and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections in organized
