Chapter 75.

AN ACT to Reduce Certain Fees of Deputy Sheriffs for the Next Two Years.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Suspension of certain laws. From the effective date of this Act the operation of all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with any of the provisions of this act are hereby suspended for a period of 2 years only.

Sec. 2. Fees reduced. Every deputy sheriff and court messenger while in attendance upon the supreme judicial court or the superior court in their several counties shall receive for said attendance and service the sum of $4.50 per day and said deputy sheriffs shall not receive any other or additional compensation for any services whatsoever performed by them while in attendance upon said courts or upon either of them. Every deputy sheriff, while performing special duties under order of the sheriff shall receive for such services the sum of $4.50 per day, together with necessary incidental expenses, including traveling expenses incurred in the performance of official business at not exceeding 7 cents per mile, to be paid from the county treasury, the bills for which shall be audited as provided in section 1 of chapter 148. Said deputy sheriffs shall not receive any other or further compensation for any services whatsoever performed in the capacity of deputy sheriff while performing said special duties under order of the sheriff.

Sec. 3. Limitation of act. This act shall remain in effect for a period of 2 years only from the taking effect thereof.

Approved March 31, 1933.

AN ACT Creating a Commission to Investigate the Need of Legislation Relating to the Lobster Industry.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Commission to study and investigate laws relating to lobster industry. The governor and council are hereby authorized and directed to appoint a commission consisting of 5 suitable and competent men to make a study of the lobster industry and prepare a report making such recommendations to the 87th legislature as they deem advisable, with special consideration of the conservation of the industry, the sizes of lobsters in commercial demand and the desirability of uniform laws in the various states producing lobsters.
