OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Sixth
Legislature

1933

Whereas: In the judgment of this legislature the facts herein before set forth create an emergency within the meaning of Article XXXI of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, now therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. In order to provide flexibility in the handling of the revenue of the state, whether derived from direct taxation or from indirect sources of whatever nature, the governor and council are hereby authorized, notwithstanding any provision of law requiring any part or parts of such revenues to be set aside or segregated and held in a separate fund or funds for any specific purpose or purposes, to use such direct tax money and indirect receipts in accordance with their best judgment in such manner as will provide for the carrying on of all governmental functions, provided, however, that the controller shall show by proper record the special funds as constituted by law from which any such revenues are diverted, that proper provision may be made when funds are available for the restoration thereof.

Sec. 2. Notwithstanding the terms of any act or resolve passed by this legislature providing for the appropriation of any funds for any particular purpose or purposes, the governor and council are hereby authorized to delay the expenditure of such fund or funds for such purposes until in their judgment the cash position of the state warrants such expenditure or expenditures.

Sec. 3. In view of the emergency recited in the preamble this act shall take effect when approved; and shall remain in effect until January 1, 1934.

Approved March 31, 1933.
