CHAP. 87

to the care of any suitable person and may be required to work for such person, for a period not exceeding the term of her commitment, on such conditions as said department may deem reasonable and proper; or she may be entrusted to the custody of the bureau of social welfare, in which case, the expense of her maintenance and education shall be borne in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of this chapter. The department shall require the person to whom such girl is entrusted, to report to said department as often as once in 3 months the conduct and behavior of such girl, and whether she remains under such person, and if not, where she is. Said department shall take care that the terms of such trust are fulfilled, and the girl well treated, and if it believes that by reason of her misconduct, vicious inclinations or surroundings, she is in danger of falling into habits of vice or immorality, or that her welfare is in any way imperiled, it may cancel such trust and resume charge of such girl with the same powers as before the trust was made. The powers of said department with respect to any girl entrusted, as herein provided, to the care of a suitable person are not affected thereby. Said department may authorize any officer thereof, or the superintendent of said school to entrust said girls to the care and service of a suitable person or persons without indenture, to see to their welfare during such service and to require their return to said school at discretion. The department shall have regard to the character of those to whom any girl is entrusted.'

Approved March 30, 1935.

AN ACT to Amend Section 14 of Chapter 147 of the Revised Statutes Relating to Violation of Terms of Probation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 147, § 14, amended. Section 14 of chapter 147 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 14. Court may suspend sentence and place respondent on probation; violation of terms of probation. The court may in its discretion, if the offense is within the jurisdiction of the court trying the cause, suspend sentence for a definite period of time, or for an indefinite time not exceeding 1 year, and such respondent may be committed to the custody and control of the probation officer. In all cases where the respondent is committed to the custody or control of the probation officer, the court shall give to each respondent a writing showing the terms of his probation and the times and places when and where such respondent is to report to such probation officer. And if at any time any such respondent violates the terms of his probation, the probation officer shall forthwith report the same to the court which finally tried the cause, and the court may thereupon decree said probation ended, and either impose the sentence, if the cause has been continued for sentence, or in all other cases order the respondent to forthwith comply with the original sentence; and in all cases where sentence has not been imposed, the court may forthwith impose sentence. The probation officer may bring any such respondent who has violated the terms of his probation before the court which finally tried the cause, in vacation, and any justice of said court upon being satisfied of the facts, may order the respondent to forthwith comply with the original sentence.'

Approved March 30, 1935.

AN ACT Relating to Time Limit on Notices in re Hearings on Licenses for Wharves and Fish Weirs.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, § 176; relating to application for license to build or extend wharves and fish weirs, further amended. Section 176 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 139 of the public laws of 1931, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Sec. 176. Time limit on decisions extended. Any person intending to build or extend any wharf or fish weir or trap in tide-waters, within the limits of any city or town, may apply in writing to the municipal officers thereof, stating the location, limits, and boundaries, as nearly as may be, of such intended erection or extension, and asking license therefor. Upon receiving such application, said officers shall give at least 3 days' public notice thereof in a newspaper, published in the municipality, or, if there be no newspaper published in the municipality, in a newspaper published within the county, and shall therein designate a day on which they shall meet on or near the premises described, and examine the same. If upon such examination and hearing of all parties interested, said officers decide that such erection or extension would not be an obstruction to navigation, or an injury to the rights of others, and determine to allow the same, they shall issue a license under their hands to the applicant, authorizing him to make such erection or extension, and to maintain the same within the limits mentioned in such license; the applicant for license to build or extend a fish weir or trap as aforesaid shall first give bond to the town, without sureties, in the sum of $100, conditioned that upon the termination of such license he shall remove all stakes and brush from the location therein described. Said municipal officers shall, within 10 days
