chief of the division of animal industry, Augusta. On the tuberculin test chart, or on a separate chart, it must also be shown that the cattle brought into the state have passed a negative test for Bang's Disease within 60 days, or within 1 year if coming from a herd in which no positive or suspicious animals were found on last test and a test of all animals over 6 months of age was made within a year. This regulation applies to all cattle brought into the state by any public or private carrier or driven on foot. Calves under 1 year of age need not be tuberculin tested if they come from an accredited herd but a test chart must accompany giving this information. Cattle for immediate slaughter may be brought into the state without test papers provided the permit so states, but they must be consigned to a reliable person or company and slaughtered within 10 days under inspection that shall be acceptable to the commissioner of agriculture or his duly authorized agent in charge of live stock sanitary work. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished as provided in section 16.'

Approved March 30, 1935.
