PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Seventh Legislature

1935

States, and administered under this act, the state of Maine shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over all such lands. Any civil and criminal process issuing under the authority of this state may be executed on said lands in the same manner and to the same effect as if the same were privately owned, and exclusive jurisdiction in and to said lands shall revert to the state of Maine when said lands shall cease to be owned by the United States, and provided further, that such lands owned by the United States shall be exempt from all taxes and assessments so long as the same shall be the property of the United States.

(j) To fix the qualifications and duties of, and to employ permanently or part time, such employees and other personnel as the commission may from time to time deem necessary in the discharge of its duties under this act; salaries, fees and other compensations to be fixed by the governor and council.

(k) All monies received by the commission shall be deposited with the treasurer of state, who shall maintain a separate fund which shall be used for the continued maintenance and development of said park areas.

(l) To have and use an official seal which shall be in custody of the secretary of said commission.

(m) There is hereby appropriated the sum of $1500 to be used in carrying out the purposes of this act.

(n) Immediately upon appointment the commission shall meet, elect a chairman, arrange for suitable headquarters and otherwise act to perfect its organization.

Sec. 3. Real estate subject to flowage. All real estate acquired under the provisions of this act, shall be and remain subject to flowage under the provisions of chapter 106 of the revised statutes, known as the Mill Act, and any amendment now or hereafter made thereto, or under any special charter heretofore or hereafter granted by the state of Maine, notwithstanding title thereto may be in the state of Maine.

Sec. 4. Repealing clause. All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 5, 1935.

Chapter 145.

AN ACT Relating to School Unions.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 19, § 62, amended; towns regrouped for school unions. Section 62 of chapter 19 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

CHAP. 146

'Sec. 62. Towns may be combined into unions for supervision; exceptions; appeal. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of education and the committee of 3 hereinafter named, on or before the 1st day of July, ~~1937~~ 1938, to regroup all the towns in the state, except as herein provided, into unions for the purpose of employing superintendents of schools. Such supervisory unions as shall have been formed on June 30, 1933 may be dissolved by the commissioner of education for the purpose of a more advantageous combination. During the first 3 years of the operation of this section, regroupings shall be made only when vacancies occur, by death, resignation or failure of re-election. Whenever such regroupings are made, the commissioner of education shall have authority to re-allocate any town or towns in the unions affected to unions already organized. All existing contracts shall remain binding but no contract shall be renewed or made terminating later than June 30, ~~1937~~ 1938. A committee of 3, who shall act with the commissioner in the matter of regrouping shall be appointed by the governor and council. Said committee shall serve until July 1, ~~1937~~ 1938. The necessary travel expense of said committee shall be paid by the state and there is hereby appropriated for this purpose a sum not exceeding $300. Provided, however, that any superintending school committee of a town dissatisfied with the combination proposed by the commissioner of education and the committee to include that town may appeal to the governor and council who shall make the final decision relative thereto. The unions formed under the provisions of this section shall be effective July 1, ~~1937~~ 1938. Whenever, upon the representation of the superintending school committee of any town, it shall appear to the commissioner of education to be to the advantage of said town and of the state to change the combination of towns composing the union of which said town is a part, the commissioner of education shall have authority to direct the dissolution and organization of unions so that a more advantageous combination may be effected. Provided, however, that any superintending school committee of a town dissatisfied with the change in the combination proposed by the commissioner of education to include that town may appeal to the governor and council, who shall make the final decision relative thereto.'

Approved April 5, 1935.
