of such records, compare them with other records already on file, and shall furnish to the official forwarding such records, such information as he may have relative to the criminal record of such persons.'

'Sec. 20. Duty of jailers. It shall be the duty of the persons in charge of any jail, prison or reformatory within the state, to furnish to the supervisor of the bureau of identification, upon request, the finger-prints, photographs and description of any person detained in such institution.'

'Sec. 21. Supervisor to cooperate with other bureaus. The supervisor of the bureau of identification shall cooperate with similar bureaus in other states and with the national bureau in the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C. and he shall develop and carry on an interstate, national, and international system of identification.'

'Sec. 22. Cooperation with local officials. The supervisor of the bureau of identification shall afford instruction and offer assistance to all persons required to take finger-prints and photographs in the establishment and operation of their local systems of identification, in order to assure coordination with the system of identification conducted by the state bureau. Neglect or refusal of any person or official to make reports or perform any other act required by the preceding sections shall constitute a misdemeanor, and such person or official, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50.'

'Sec. 23. Rules and regulations. The supervisor of the bureau of identification shall make and forward to all persons charged with any duty or responsibility under the 5 preceding sections, rules and regulations for the taking and preserving of the finger-prints and other records as hereinbefore provided, such rules and regulations before becoming effective to be approved by the attorney-general.'

Approved March 31, 1937.

Chapter 92

AN ACT Establishing the York Game Sanctuary in the Plantation of Dallas in the County of Franklin.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Game preserve established in the plantation of Dallas, in the county of Franklin. No person shall at any time, hunt, chase, catch, kill or destroy any wild bird or wild animal within the following named territory; on the property of the following named persons, to wit: on land of J. Lewis York and on land of Yorks; said game sanctuary being in the northwest corner of Dallas Plantation, and bounded as follows, to wit: west by the east line of the town of Rangeley; north by the south line of Lang Plantation; east by the west line of the public lot in Dallas Plantation; and south by land of Furbish, Goodspeed Company and land of the heirs of Henry Bliss, containing 539 acres, more or less.

Sec. 2. Name. This game sanctuary shall be called the York game sanctuary.

Sec. 3. Penalties for violations. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be subject to the general penalties provided in section 107 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, for violations of the fish and game laws, and acts additional thereto and amendatory thereof.

Approved March 31, 1937.

Chapter 93

AN ACT Relating to Loan and Building Associations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 57, § 115, amended. Section 115 of chapter 57 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 115. Unpledged shares of deceased shareholders; distribution. Upon the death of a shareholder, his legal representatives shall be entitled to receive the amount of his unpledged shares, to be ascertained as provided in section 106 for withdrawal of shares. No fines shall be charged, or profits credited to a deceased member's account from and after his decease, unless his legal representatives assume the future payments on such shares, which they may assume under the same rights and liabilities as those of the deceased. Moneys received for the shares of a deceased shareholder, or the shares themselves, as the case may be, shall descend to the same persons and be distributed in the same manner as money received from a policy of life insurance on the life of a deceased person; provided, however, that said moneys shall be subject to inheritance and estate taxes.'

Approved March 31, 1937.
