PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Eighth Legislature

1937

CHAP. 127

for transportation, nor shall any person or carrier accept for transportation or transport any game animal or bird except as provided in this chapter.

Any resident may transport to his home any game which he has killed and which is legally in his possession, provided he shall have been properly licensed and has met all other requirements of this chapter.

No person or carrier shall transport any game bird or animal in closed season except that any person who has killed said game in open season shall have a reasonable time after the beginning of the closed season in which to transport said game to his home.

All game transported or offered for transportation shall be open to view, tagged and plainly labeled with the owner's name and address and accompanied by him. Game transported for non-residents by a common carrier need not be accompanied by the owner if all other requirements of this chapter are met. Any carrier accepting any game for transportation shall be satisfied that the person presenting said game for shipment is the person to whom the hunter's license offered for inspection was issued and shall securely affix any tags and such other identification and make such returns to the commissioner as may be required by this chapter. Any wild bird or animal or part thereof found in possession of any person in violation of this chapter is subject to seizure and shall be seized and become the property of the state.

The hunting license of any non-resident shall entitle him to have game which he has legally killed, transported to his home without further fee to the state.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 38, § 55, amended. The 4th and 5th paragraphs of section 55 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 8, 1937.

Chapter 127

AN ACT Relating to Municipal Ordinances.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, § 137, additional. Section 137 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

'Such ordinance or by-law may provide for planning improvement projects and the physical development of the city, town, or village corporation, which may include among other things, the general location, relocation, character, extent and improvement of public buildings, parks, parkways, squares, public grounds and public ways; the extent and manner of grading and improving proposed streets and installation of water and other facilities therein as a condition precedent to acceptance as public ways; regulation of outdoor advertising and filling stations; adequate and convenient provision for open spaces for parking and traffic, recreation, light and air, avoidance of undue density of population, width and area of lots; the routing of such types of vehicles over such ways as the municipal officers shall determine; and for a planning board, zoning board, or other administrative authority thereunder; and cities, towns and village corporations may enforce such ordinances or by-laws by suitable penalties.'

Approved April 8, 1937.

Chapter 128

AN ACT Relative to Transportation of Fish and Game by Aeroplane.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 81, amended. Section 81 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 81. Fish and game; transportation of, by aeroplane. No person shall transport, attempt to transport or offer for transportation by aeroplane any fish or game, unless such fish or game shall bear a transportation tag issued by the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, stating that the same may be so transported and bearing the signature of a fish and game warden. The pilot or owner of any aeroplane, other than those of regular transport lines, shall procure from the commissioner of inland fisheries and game a permit to transport any such fish or game by air. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished as set forth in section 107 of this chapter.'

Approved April 8, 1937.
