Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Eighty-Eighth Legislature

1937

CHAP. 20

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency set forth in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 4, 1937.

Chapter 19

AN ACT Relating to the Register of Deeds for the County of Knox.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. True copy authorized of Knox county records of deeds. The register of deeds for the county of Knox is hereby authorized and empowered to make a true copy of the contents of volume 26 and of volume 29 of the Knox county records of deeds and to certify that the same are true copies of said records.

Sec. 2. Same legal effect as original volumes. When said copies are so made and certified, the records contained therein and certified copies made therefrom shall be received in all courts of law with the same legal effect as those contained in the original volumes.

Sec. 3. Compensation for services. The compensation for such services shall be fixed by county commissioners of said county, and upon an order approved by them shall be paid by the county treasurer.

Approved March 4, 1937.

Chapter 20

AN ACT Relating to the Acquisition of Certain Lands in the State by the United States of America.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Consent of state to acquisition of certain lands by United States of America granted. The consent of the state of Maine is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States of America, with the consent of the owners thereof, of such lands in the towns of Alfred, Lyman, Hollis and Dayton; as in the opinion of the United States may be needed for the establishment, consolidation, and extension of an experimental forest; provided, that no land shall be acquired under the provisions of this act east of route 5 in the towns of Hollis and Dayton nor more than 1½ miles from lands purchased by the United States from the Bates College estate under the provisions of chapter 62 of the resolves of 1935; provided, further, that the aggregate area acquired under the provisions of this act in the aforesaid towns shall not exceed 3,000 acres; and provided further, that the state of Maine shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over lands so acquired so far that civil process in all cases and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the state of Maine against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed thereon in like manner as if this act had not been passed.

Sec. 2. Further powers granted. Power is hereby conferred upon the Congress of the United States to pass such laws and to make or provide for the making of such rules and regulations of both a civil and criminal nature, and provide punishment therefor, as in its judgment may be necessary for the administration, control, and protection of national forests and forest lands as are acquired by the United States.

Approved March 6, 1937.

Chapter 21

AN ACT Relating to Municipal Court of Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Salary of recorder increased. Section 1 of chapter 274 of the private and special laws of 1887, as amended, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 1. Salary of recorder. The salary of the recorder of the municipal court for the city of Portland shall be $1600 which shall be in full for all services, and it shall be the duty of said recorder to make and present all copies of libels and monitions in liquor cases.'

Approved March 8, 1937.
