seers; and the said president, fellows and overseers, their successors and associates are hereby continued a corporation under the name of the "President and Trustees of Bates College." By that name they shall have power to prosecute and defend suits at law and in equity, to have and use a common seal and to change the same at pleasure, to take and hold for the objects of their association by gift, grant, bequest, purchase or otherwise, any estate, real or personal or both, and to sell and convey any estate, real or personal or both which the interests of said college may require to be sold and conveyed.

Sec. 3. Purposes. All property and estate, real or personal or both, which may at any time by gift, grant, bequest, purchase or otherwise come into the possession of the said corporation shall be faithfully devoted to the purposes of education and learning by maintaining a college or university in Lewiston aforesaid with such departments elsewhere as may from time to time be established.

Sec. 4. By-laws; officers; powers. The said corporation may adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations, not repugnant to the laws of the state of Maine, as it may deem expedient for the management of the affairs of the college and for the transaction of its business; it shall have power to establish in said college such courses of study, departments and schools as it may elect; it shall appoint a treasurer of the corporation, such other officers of business administration and such officers of educational administration as it shall deem proper, and all officers of instruction; and, subject to the contractual rights of such appointees, it may remove them at pleasure; it shall have power to confer such academic degrees as are usually conferred by colleges or universities. It shall be, and it is hereby, invested, in addition to the powers, privileges, rights and immunities specifically provided for in this act, with all the other powers, privileges, rights and immunities incident to similar corporations.

Sec. 5. President. The president shall be chosen by the concurring votes of at least 8 members of the board of fellows and of at least 13 members of the board of overseers, each board acting separately; he may be removed from office in the same manner, provided, however, that reasonable notice shall have been given him in writing specifying the grounds of removal, and that, if requested by him, opportunity for hearing upon the specifications shall have been had before the 2 boards in convention. The president shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and the principal academic officer of the college, and, except as authority, duties and responsibilities are or may be specifically laid upon other persons, he shall have general administration of the affairs of the college. He may at his pleasure attend the separate sessions of the board of fellows and of the board of overseers; when so attending he shall be the presiding officer and shall participate with the members of these boards in the conduct of their business, having the right to vote; but these provisions shall not apply when the business under consideration is the question of the removal of the president from office.

Sec. 11. Repealing clause. This act shall not affect the tenure of office of any person holding any office or appointment under the authority of chapter 192 of the private and special laws of Maine of 1873, entitled, "An Act Granting a New Charter to Bates College"; but, otherwise, said act, so far as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and all other acts and parts of acts so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.
