AN ACT to Provide a Town Council and Manager Form of Government for the Town of Norway, in the County of Oxford.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Date of town meetings. On and after the passage of this act and its adoption by the town as hereinafter provided, annual town meetings shall be held in the town of Norway, in the county of Oxford, on the 1st Monday of March in each year, and the voters shall then choose by ballot, as now provided by law, a moderator.

Sec. 2. Election of officers. At such meetings the voters shall then choose by majority vote, as hereinafter provided, inhabitants of said town to be known as councillors, a town clerk, and a member of the superintending school committee. The councillors shall select annually a town treasurer, and an auditor of accounts, who shall be an auditor or an accountant approved by the state auditing department, and once in 3 years a health officer, subject to the approval of the state commissioner of health and welfare as now provided by general law, and when a vacancy exists, shall select a town manager, with duties hereinafter defined, for a term not to exceed 3 years. Said health officer shall appoint plumbing inspectors for a term of 1 year subject to the approval of said commissioner as now provided by general law. Except as hereinafter provided, all other necessary town officers provided by this act or now or hereafter provided under any statute or by-law shall be appointed by the town manager, subject to approval by a majority of the council. At the first meeting held under this act, said councillors shall be chosen as follows: 2 for a term of 1 year, 2 for a term of 2 years, and 1 for a term of 3 years, and thereafter at each of said annual meetings 2 councillors shall be chosen as herein provided, each for a term of 3 years, provided, however, that in each 3rd year but 1 councillor shall be chosen; and provided further, that vacancies in the office of town councillor due to death, resignation or other cause shall be filled at the next annual meeting for the unexpired term.

Sec. 3. Councillors to serve ex officio as certain officers. The councillors provided for in section 2 shall serve instead of selectmen, overseers of the poor, and assessors of taxes provided for by general statutes and shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties, but said councillors may delegate to the town manager any of the duties vested in them by virtue of said offices, not inconsistent with general statutes. If this act becomes operative as hereinafter provided the terms of office of the members of the board of selectmen, assessors of taxes, and overseers of the poor, not at that time expired, shall terminate.

Sec. 4. Organization meeting. The councillors elected as herein provided shall meet as soon as may be after their election and shall choose by ballot one of their number to be chairman, and shall appoint a secretary; an affidavit of such choice of chairman with the appointment of the secretary, signed by a majority of the councillors, shall be recorded by the town clerk in the records of said town. Thereafter records shall be kept by the council of all the doings of said council, said records to be public records, and shall be open to the inspection of any citizen of said town, at the office of the council.

Sec. 5. Duties of council; school committee. Said council elected, as herein provided, shall serve instead of board of road commissioners, road commissioner or road commissioners as provided by general statutes and shall have the same powers in relation to repairs of bridges, roads and sidewalks of said town, as boards of road commissioners, road commissioner or commissioners and municipal officers have under general statutes, and be subject to the same duties in relation thereto. The present members of the superintending school committee whose terms of office have not expired shall continue to serve until the expiration of their present term of office. The 3rd member shall be chosen in the manner provided for in section 2 for a term of 3 years and annually thereafter a member of the superintending school committee shall be elected annually by the voters for a term of 3 years. The superintending school committee, constituted or elected as herein provided, shall have the same powers in relation to schools of said town as now provided by statute and shall be subject to the same duties in relation thereto. The council shall meet once each month at such times as it may designate in its organization meeting provided for in section 4, and 3 members of said council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Special meetings of said council may be called by the chairman of said council or by a majority of all the members of said council. Notice of such special meeting shall be mailed to, served upon, or left at the usual dwelling place of each councillor and the town manager at least 24 hours before such meeting.

Sec. 6. Compensation. Each councillor shall receive $2.50 per diem when actually engaged in the performance of his duty as councillor, outside of regular monthly and special meetings, and his actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his duties, these expenses to be paid by the town treasurer. He shall also receive $1 for attendance at each regular and special meeting.

Sec. 7. Town manager and tax collector. Said councillors shall by majority vote as soon as may be after their organization meeting appoint a town manager, said office of town manager being hereby created, who shall not be a member of the council. The town manager so appointed shall be the collector of taxes and as such shall have the same powers as though regularly elected under the provisions of the general statute. The councillors as overseers of the poor, as herein provided, may authorize the town manager, at the time of his appointment aforesaid or at any time thereafter, to be clerk or agent for them as said overseers of the poor, to sign and send the written notices and written answers referred to in sections 31 and 32 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, and acts additional thereto and amendatory thereof. Any such written notices and written answers shall have the same effect as if signed and sent by the members of the council as overseers of the poor themselves. Such town manager shall, on and after his appointment as aforesaid, be the superintendent of roads of said town.

Sec. 8. Special power of council. At any regular meeting, the council may vote to combine the offices of collector of taxes and town treasurer.

Sec. 9. Terms of town officers. All appointed officers and boards shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointing power, except that of town manager and health officer, who can only be removed upon written charges and a public hearing before the council upon the question. Previous to the date of their removal, but pending such hearing, the council may suspend them from office.

CHAP. 82

Sec. 10. Powers and duties of town manager. The town manager shall be chosen by the council solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications and his technical knowledge of road construction, preference in making said appointment to be given to a duly qualified civil engineer when practicable, and he shall be the administrative head of the town government and shall be responsible to the council for the administration of all departments of the town over which the council under this act and the general statutes has control, and his powers and duties, where not otherwise herein provided, shall be generally as follows:
