Chapter 100

AN ACT to Provide a Census of Crippled Persons.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Department of health and welfare to procure information. The department of health and welfare shall procure, through the best and most economical means at its disposal as soon as possible, a census of crippled persons residing in the state between the ages of 21 and 65 years, including such information as it may consider important as to the living conditions and other circumstances of such persons, and shall report the result of its findings to the legislature at the session next following the completion of said census.

Sec. 2. Definition of crippled persons. For the purposes of this act, a person unable to earn a livelihood for himself and his dependents because of permanent physical disability shall be considered as a crippled person.

Sec. 3. Municipal officers shall cooperate. Selectmen, assessors, overseers of the poor, city and town managers, and other municipal officers, shall cooperate with the department of health and welfare in the procuring of said census.

Approved April 22, 1937.
