On and after the passage of this act and its adoption by the town as hereinafter provided, annual town meetings shall be held in the town of Lincoln in Penobscot county on the 3rd Monday of March in each year, and the voters shall then choose by ballot, as now provided by law, a moderator.

Sec. 2. Election of officers. At such annual town meetings the voters shall elect by ballot as hereinafter provided, 5 inhabitants of said town to be known as councillors, and a member or members of the superintending school committee, in accordance with the revised statutes of 1930 and amendments thereto, a town clerk, a town treasurer and an auditor of accounts.

At the 1st town meeting held under this act, said councillors shall be elected as follows: 2 for a term of 1 year, 2 for a term of 2 years, 1 for a term of 3 years, and thereafter at each of said annual town meetings 2 councillors shall be chosen as herein provided, each for a term of 3 years, provided, however, that in each 3rd year but 1 councillor shall be chosen: and provided further, that vacancies in the office of town councillor due to death, resignation or other cause shall be filled at the next annual meeting for the unexpired term.

The council when duly elected and qualified shall annually appoint a tax collector and once in 3 years a health officer subject to the approval of the state commissioner of health and welfare, as now provided by the revised statutes of 1930 and amendments thereto, and a town manager with duties hereinafter defined. Except as hereinafter provided, all other necessary town officers provided by this act or now or hereafter provided under any statute or by-law shall be appointed by the town manager with approval of a majority of the councillors.
