Chapter 49

AN ACT Relating to Valuation and Release of Attached Property.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 95, § 78, amended. Section 78 of chapter 95 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 78. Valuation and release on bond of debtor. If, at the hearing, such justice finds that such interest is worth as much as the amount ordered in the writ to be attached, he shall order such defendant to give bonds to the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, conditioned to pay the judgment recovered by the plaintiff, with his costs on the petition, within 30 days after judgment, such bond, except as hereinafter provided, to be in an amount equal to the amount ordered in the writ to be attached; but, if he finds that such interest is worth less than the amount ordered in the writ to be attached, such bond, except as hereinafter provided, shall be in an amount equal to the value of such interest; provided, however, that if, in either event the justice shall find that the value of the interest attached is in excess of the amount of any judgment which the plaintiff may reasonably be expected to recover, with his costs on the petition, he may fix the amount of such bond at such sum, not exceeding the amount ordered to be attached and not exceeding the value of the interest attached, as he may deem adequate to protect the plaintiff in the collection of any judgment recovered by him, with his costs on the petition.'
