Chapter 68

AN ACT Relating to Probation Officers and Their Duties.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 147, § 15, amended. Section 15 of chapter 147 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 15. Personal recognizance of parent of child under 17 years. Whenever a child under the age of ~~sixteen~~ 17 years is arrested and charged with an offense other than a felony, or a crime which if committed by an adult would be a felony, the officer making such arrest may accept in lieu of bail, and without committing such child to any jail or police station, the personal recognizance in writing, without security, of the parent, guardian, or other lawful custodian of such child to produce such child before the proper court or magistrate on the following day at a time and place to be specified in said recognizance; and thereupon such officer shall place such child in the care and custody of the person executing such recognizance, who on failure to so produce such child, pursuant to the terms of such recognizance, shall be liable to punishment by the court or magistrate as for criminal contempt. And similar recognizance may be taken by the court or magistrate for the subsequent production of such child at a time and place to be specified therein pending the final termination of the proceedings, and noncompliance therewith shall subject the person giving the same to the same punishment.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 147, § 17, amended. Section 17 of chapter 147 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 17. Notice of arrest to parent, guardian, or legal custodian of child, and to probation officer. Whenever any child under the age of ~~sixteen~~ 17 years has been arrested for any offense and is confined in any jail or police station, the officer making such arrest shall forthwith notify the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of such child of the fact of such arrest, and of the time and place where his trial is to be held. Such officer shall also notify a probation officer in his county of the fact of such arrest, and of the time and place of such trial. And any court having jurisdiction of the offense may upon application of such probation officer, by an order in writing, cause such child to be forthwith placed in the custody of such probation officer pending the trial and final determination of said cause.'

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 147, § 18, amended. Section 18 of chapter 147 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 18. Continuance without trial; child in custody of probation officer; discharge of respondent without trial. When any child under the age

CHAP. 70

Approved March 14, 1941

Chapter 69

AN ACT Relating to Expenses of Loans by Savings Banks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 57, § 46, amended. Section 46 of chapter 57 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 46. No officer to receive gift, fee, or commission; penalty; borrower to pay expenses. No gift, fee, commission, or brokerage shall be received by any officer of a savings bank, on account of any transaction to which the bank is a party, under a penalty, for each offense, of $100, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name, and to the use of the state, provided, that nothing herein contained applies to any expenses of examining titles, and making conveyances upon loans made by savings banks. Parties making a loan from a savings bank shall pay all expenses incurred by reason thereof.'

Approved March 14, 1941
