Chapter 75

AN ACT Providing for an Assistant County Attorney for Penobscot County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 93, additional. Chapter 93 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 24-A and to read as follows:

'Sec. 24-A. Assistant county attorney for Penobscot county; duties; salary; term of office. The county attorney of the county of Penobscot may appoint an assistant, who shall be a resident of the county and duly admitted to the practice of law in the state of Maine, to be approved by a justice of the superior court, resident in said county, or by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court, who shall hold his office during the term of the county attorney by whom he was appointed, subject to removal at any time by the chief justice of the supreme judicial court. Said assistant shall take the oath prescribed for county attorneys and assist the county attorney in the ordinary duties of his office, in the drawing of indictments, in the hearing of complaints before the grand jury, and in the preparation and trial of criminal causes. He shall, when directed by the county attorney, act as counsel for the state in the trial of complaints before municipal courts and trial justices. He shall receive an annual salary from the state treasury, in monthly payments on the last day of the month, of $1000.'

Approved March 14, 1941

AN ACT Relating to Appeals in Civil Cases to the Superior Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 97, § 18, amended. Section 18 of chapter 97 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 18. Appeal, when and how claimed; its effect. Any party aggrieved by the judgment of the justice, whether after trial or upon default, may appeal to the next superior court in the same county, and may enter such appeal at any time within 5 days after the judgment, Sunday not included. The appellant shall within 5 days after judgment, Sunday not included, pay to the clerk the required fees for such appeal, including the
