Chapter 241

AN ACT Relating to the Taking and Sale of Clams in the Town of Kennebunk.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. License required; definition. No person shall, in the town of Kennebunk, in the county of York, dig or take clams, clam worms, or bloodworms for sale unless license has been granted to him by the municipal officers of said town, who are hereby authorized to grant and issue such licenses and fix the fee therefor. No license shall be granted or issued except to a resident of said town. Nothing herein shall prohibit any resident or a riparian owner of shores or flats therein from digging and taking clams for food for himself and family without license. The term "a resident" shall mean a person who has resided in this state for the term of at least 6 consecutive months and in the town of Kennebunk for at least 3 consecutive months prior to receiving a license.

Sec. 2. Dealers' licenses required; definition. No person shall be a dealer in clams, clam worms, or bloodworms in the town of Kennebunk unless license has been granted to him by the municipal officers of said town, who are hereby authorized to issue such license and fix the fee therefor. The term "dealer" herein used shall mean any person, firm or corporation buying clams, clam worms, or bloodworms for resale.

Sec. 3. Licenses, revocation, appeal. The municipal officers may revoke any license issued hereunder by them, upon evidence satisfactory to them that the person taking or selling clams, clam worms, or bloodworms has violated any of the laws of the state of Maine regulating the taking and sale of clams, clam worms, or bloodworms. If the municipal officers refuse to issue the licenses provided for in this act or if a license has been revoked by the municipal officers, a person aggrieved may apply to any justice of the superior court, in term time, or vacation, who may order the issuance or restoration thereof, provided said justice finds the municipal officers acted fraudulently or corruptly or erred in their conclusion of facts.

Sec. 4. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 or by imprisonment for not more than 30 days.
