OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninetieth Legislature

(Effective July 26, 1941)

CHAP. 27

trict, as aforesaid, shall be turned into said sinking fund each year, to provide for the retirement of said bonds ~~final extinguishment of said district funded debt.~~

The money set aside for the sinking fund shall be devoted to the retirement of said notes and bonds, and shall be used for no other purpose, and shall be invested in such securities as savings banks are allowed to hold.

All sums of money received or recovered by said trustees by reason of any assessment upon the persons or property of individuals in said district shall be added to said sinking fund, or used for the payment of notes or temporary loans.

Whenever any bonds of said district become due, or can be purchased by said trustees on favorable terms, said trustees shall, if sufficient funds have accumulated in said sinking fund, redeem or purchase said bonds, and cancel or reissue them. ~~In no case shall bonds so cancelled or redeemed be re-issued.~~

~~In case the amount in said sinking fund shall not be sufficient to pay the total amount of the bonds falling due at any one time, authority to issue new bonds sufficient to redeem so many of said bonds as cannot be redeemed from the sinking fund is hereby granted to said district, but in no case shall new bonds run beyond twenty-five years from the date of the original issue.'~~

Sec. 3. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed; provided, however, that nothing contained in this act shall be deemed to affect the validity of any notes or bonds of said district heretofore issued.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency recited in the preamble hereof this act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 28, 1941

Chapter 27

AN ACT Authorizing and Empowering the Chief Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court to Appoint a Committee to Study the Practice and Procedure of the Supreme Judicial and Superior Courts.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Appointment of committee to study practice and procedure of supreme judicial and superior courts. The chief justice of the supreme judicial court is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a committee from the Maine State Bar, consisting of such number as he may deem advisable, who shall serve without pay, and whose duty it shall be to study the practice and procedure, both at law and in equity, of the supreme judicial and superior courts of this state and report to the said chief justice on or before the 1st day of October, 1942, recommending any needed or desirable changes therein, which in the opinion of such committee, might be made to improve the administration of justice in either or both of said courts. Said chief justice is further authorized and empowered to fill any vacancies occurring in said committee after its appointment, which may be caused by death, resignation, inability to serve or otherwise.

Approved March 8, 1941
