Chapter 56

AN ACT Relating to the Boundaries of the Town of Morrill.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Boundaries of town of Morrill determined. The following described territory is hereby declared to be, and shall be hereafter a part of the town of Morrill: beginning at the point where the northeasterly boundary of the town of Montville meets the southeasterly boundary of the town of Montville; thence continuing in a southeasterly direction along the continuation of the northeasterly boundary of said Montville to the point where said line extended meets the northerly boundary of the town of Morrill; thence in a westerly direction along the northerly boundary of the town of Morrill to the point where said northerly boundary of Morrill meets the southeasterly boundary of the town of Montville; thence in a northeasterly direction along the southeasterly boundary of the town of Montville along the continuation of the line of the boundary to the point of beginning, being 140 acres more or less, now known as "The Gore".
