Chapter 91

RESOLVE, Relative to Catching Lobsters Near Monhegan.

Catching of lobsters regulated. Resolved: That the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries be, and hereby is, directed to repeal rule and regulation numbered 76 of the official rules and regulations of the department of sea and shore fisheries, and to issue the following rule and regulation in place thereof:

'Close time about Monhegan, penalty. It shall be unlawful to take, catch, kill, destroy, or set any lobster trap or other device for the purpose of taking, catching, killing or destroying any lobster or lobsters within 2 miles of the shore of Monhegan Island between the 25th day of June of each year and the 1st day of December following. Any person violating the provisions of this rule and regulation shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50.'

Approved April 1, 1941

RESOLVE, Appropriating Money for Control of the Fruit or Blueberry Fly in Maine.

Appropriation for blueberry fly control. Resolved: That there be, and hereby is, appropriated the sum of $2500 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1942, and $2500 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, to be expended under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture in repelling, destroying and mitigating the ravages of, and in preventing the spread and distribution of, the fruit fly infesting blueberries grown in the state of Maine, provided that any balance of the sum above appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1942, which may remain unexpended at the end of the said period shall be available for expenditure during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, and that any unexpended balance at the end of June 30, 1943, lapse into the general fund, and be it further

Resolved: That the legislature recommends that the persons, firms and corporations engaged in growing blueberries organize for the purpose of cooperating for the purpose of controlling the spread of the said fruit fly.

Approved April 4, 1941
