CHAP. 7

government during the ensuing biennium. The state budget officer, at the direction of the governor, shall then prepare a budget document in the form required by the provisions of this act; the governor shall transmit such document to the legislature not later than the close of the ~~fourth~~ second week of the regular legislative session.'

Sec. 3. P. L., 1931, c. 216, Art. II, § 9, amended. Section 9 of Article II of chapter 216 of the public laws of 1931 is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 9. Advisory committee on budget. There shall be an advisory committee on budget consisting of 3 members, 1 from each house of the legislature selected by the presiding officer thereof prior to ~~November~~ October 1st, of the even-numbered years. In each case the selection shall be, if practicable, the senior ranking member of the senate and house respectively of the committee on appropriations and financial affairs, who is to serve as a member of the next succeeding legislature, and these 2 shall select the 3rd member who shall be a member of the next succeeding legislature and a member of the minority party. The members of the committee shall be paid the necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, and in addition thereto, they shall each receive $5 per day for the time actually spent while the legislature is not in session. This committee shall meet with the governor, or the governor-elect, when so requested by him, during the preparation of the budget, and shall advise with him on any and all matters pertaining to the financial policy of the state government. The governor, however, shall be fully responsible for all budgetary recommendations made to the legislature.'
