PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-first Legislature

1943

Chapter 13

AN ACT Relating to Collection of Poll Taxes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 19, sub-§ (9), amended. Subsection (9) of section 19 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘(9) No person required by law to pay a poll tax in this state shall be granted a resident hunting, fishing or combined hunting and fishing license until he shall present a receipt or a certificate that he has paid his poll tax in the town where he resided for the year preceding that for which the license is applied for, or a valid non-expired state of Maine motor vehicle operator’s license issued in his name, or a receipt or a certificate from the taxing authority of that town that he was legally exempted therefrom, or that the tax has been abated.’

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 14

AN ACT Relating to Municipal Ordinances.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, § 143, amended. Section 143 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

‘Sec. 143. Provisions for acceptance of zoning ordinances. No ordinance or by-law enacted by any city or by any town having a representative form of town meeting under the powers hereby conferred shall be in force and effect until accepted by a majority of the electors of such city or town voting at a regular election for the election in the case of cities of municipal officers or of one or more members of the city council, and in the case of towns for the election of municipal officers, or in either case at a special election duly warned, called and conducted in the same manner as required for such regular election. And at the time of the submission for enactment to the voters of towns without a representative form of town meeting or of village corporations, or for acceptance to the voters of cities or towns having a representative form of town meeting, the vote shall be by written ballot bearing the question “Shall the Zoning Ordinance Be Accepted?” Those favoring the acceptance shall vote “Yes” and those opposed shall vote “No.”’
