PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-first Legislature

1943

CHAP. 80

as agent, to be unsuitable to act as such agent, and shall thereupon revoke such license and notify both the company and the agent of such revocation. Before any person is licensed as hereinbefore provided as a first-time agent of any foreign casualty or foreign fire insurance company, or as a first-time insurance broker, he shall pay to the insurance commissioner a fee of $10, and appear in person at such time and place as the insurance commissioner, his deputy, or any person delegated by the insurance commissioner or his deputy shall designate in writing for that purpose, for a personal written examination as to his character and qualifications to act as such agent or broker.

Provided that no personal examination, or examination fee, shall be required of a resident of the state when applying for license to solicit accident and health insurance only on behalf of not more than one insurance company, licensed to transact such business in this state, and provided further that the annual premium for such policy shall not exceed $2.

Said fee shall be used solely to defray all of the expenses of conducting examinations, and said examinations shall be in writing and kept on file in the insurance department for at least 6 months. The examiner shall be satisfied that such person is of good character, of appropriate experience or preparation, and is otherwise qualified for the license he desires; that he intends to hold himself out in good faith as an insurance agent or broker, and that no part of the commission on the business of such agent or broker shall be paid to any person, firm, or corporation other than a duly licensed agent, broker, or insurance company.'

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 80

AN ACT Relating to Notices to the State in Actions by Towns in Pauper Cases.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 29, amended. Section 29 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

'The state of Maine shall have the right to enter its appearance on the docket of the court in which such action is pending as a party defendant to plead and introduce evidence in the trial of the cause on material issues involving pauper settlement.'

Effective July 9, 1943
