PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-first Legislature

1943

CHAP. 90

Sec. 7. Penalty for false statement or fraudulency. Whoever knowingly shall make a false statement, oral or written, relating to a material fact in support of application for aid under the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for not more than 11 months. Whoever, being entitled to the benefits of said act, fraudulently applies for or receives assistance for a period of time following a termination of his right to receive the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or by imprisonment for not more than 11 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 8. Payment of relief. Relief granted under the provisions of this act as approved by the department and audited by the state controller shall be paid by the treasurer of state, and may, in the discretion of the department, be paid to any persons whom it may designate for the benefit of such dependents.

Sec. 9. Repeal of existing laws. Sections 234 to 240-A inclusive of chapter 1 of the public laws of 1933, as amended, are hereby repealed. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed or amended to conform with the provisions hereof.

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 90

AN ACT Relating to the Report of the State Tax Assessor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 12, § 20, amended. Section 20 of chapter 12 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 20. To report annually to governor and council. The state tax assessor shall annually, before the 1st day of January, make a report to the governor and council of the proceedings of the bureau of taxation, and shall include therein tabular summaries derived from returns from local assessors, with summaries showing the taxes assessed against corporations, and such statistics and other information concerning revenue and taxation as may be deemed of public interest, and for the years in which the board of equalization shall have equalized the valuation of the state, the report shall include tabular statements of the state valuation by towns.'

Effective July 9, 1943
