PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-first Legislature

1943

CHAP. 295

'Sec. 34. The state highway commission. Each member of the state highway commission shall receive an annual salary of $3,500; they shall also receive their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties while away from their homes.'

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 294

AN ACT Relating to Permit for Cattle Entering the State.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 40, § 17, amended. Section 17 of chapter 40 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 17. Permit required for cattle entering the state. No cattle shall be allowed to enter this state, from any other state or country, either for dairying purposes, breeding purposes, or for slaughter, except cattle in transit under the control of the federal government, without a permit duly authorized by the chief of the division of animal industry, which permit shall accompany the shipment. All such cattle must meet the requirements of the rules and regulations of the commissioner of agriculture. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each offense.'

'The commissioner of agriculture is hereby authorized to enter into agreements in the name of the state of Maine with other states for the purpose of controlling the transportation of cattle into, and out of, the state of Maine in order to effect the eradication of any infectious or communicable disease. The rules and regulations contained in such agreements are to be promulgated by the commissioner of agriculture with the approval of the governor.'

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 295

AN ACT Relating to Claims and Actions Against Executors and Administrators.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 101, § 14, amended. Section 14 of chapter 101 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:
