PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-first Legislature

1943

license suspended or revoked shall be delivered to any agent of the bureau of health upon demand. Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked may apply to have same reissued and it shall be reissued upon satisfactory evidence that the violations no longer exist. Any person operating an eating or lodging place after such license shall have been revoked shall be considered as operating without a license and liable to all the penalties therefor.

Any person aggrieved by the decision of the bureau of health in revoking or suspending a license or by the refusal of said bureau of health to issue a license may within 10 days thereafter appeal to any justice of the superior court, by presenting to him a petition therefor, in term time or vacation. Such justice shall fix a time and place for hearing, which may be in vacation, and cause notice thereof to be given to the bureau of health; and after hearing such justice may affirm or reverse the decision of the bureau of health and the decision of such justice shall be final. Pending judgment of the court, the decision of the bureau of health in revoking or suspending any license shall remain in full force and effect. The bureau shall, within 3 days after notice of such appeal, forward to the said court a certified copy of the proceedings.'

Effective July 9, 1943

Chapter 319

AN ACT Relating to Rebate of Registration Fees on Motor Vehicles Taken by Eminent Domain.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Rebate of registration fees on motor vehicles taken by eminent domain. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 67 of chapter 29 of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter 113 of the public laws of 1935, in the event any motor vehicle on which the registration fee has been paid is or has been taken by eminent domain or threat of eminent domain by any agency of the state or the federal government after March 1st, 1943, the secretary of state shall, upon the surrender of the plates, refund the pro rata portion of the registration fee paid.

Effective July 9, 1943
