vided, and who shall continue in office until their successors are elected as hereinafter provided.'

'Sec. 6. Permanent district officers. In their warrants for such first election the selectmen shall make provision by suitable articles for the election thereof of a warden, a clerk and a constable in the Great Island district and in the Orr's and Bailey Island district who shall be similarly qualified and sworn and who shall hold office for the term of 2 years from the 1st day of January next following their election or until their successors are elected and qualified; and similar elections shall be held at each regular election for the choice of governor thereafter. Vacancies in such offices shall be filled for the unexpired term by the selectmen.'

'Sec. 7. Town officers to act in Mainland district. At all such elections held in the mainland district the selectmen and town clerk shall perform the duties incumbent upon them at elections in towns.'

'Sec. 8. Conduct of elections. At such elections in the Great Island district and in the Orr's and Bailey Island district the respective wardens shall preside and receive the ballots and with the assistance of the clerk and constable upon the closing of the polls shall sort and count the same and declare the result in open district meeting, and before adjournment thereof shall prepare a proper return of the vote and sign and seal it in an envelope; and within 24 hours thereafter shall cause it to be delivered to the town clerk and thereupon the town clerk shall make a record of the lists of votes in the 3 several districts and the selectmen and town clerk shall forthwith prepare therefrom and send to the secretary of state a proper official return of the vote of the town in the manner prescribed by law.'
