PUBLIC, 1945

CHAP. 165

ance therewith. If an appeal is duly filed, benefits with respect to the period prior to the final determination of the commission, shall be paid only after such determination; provided, that if an appeal tribunal affirms a determination of a deputy, or the commission affirms a determination of an appeal tribunal, allowing benefits, such benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which may thereafter be taken, but if such determination is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid; provided further, if the claimant's appeal relates to the weekly benefit amount or maximum benefit amount potentially payable to him in the benefit year, benefits may nevertheless be paid to the extent of the deputy's determination and prior to the final determination of the commission.'

Chapter 165

AN ACT Amending the Unemployment Compensation Law as to Appeals.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 24, § 6, subsection (c), amended. Subsection (c) of section 6 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'(c) Appeals. Unless such appeal is withdrawn, an appeal tribunal, after affording the parties reasonable opportunity for fair hearing, shall affirm ~~or~~, modify or set aside the findings of fact and decision of the deputy. The parties shall be duly notified of such tribunal's decision, together with its reasons therefor, which shall be deemed to be the final decision of the commission, unless within 10 days after the date of notification or mailing of such decision; further appeal is initiated pursuant to subsection (e) of this section.'

Effective July 21, 1945
